

Dublin, September the 5th 1710.

Just now arrived one British Pacquet, which brought the following Advices.

Barcelona, August 6.

ON the 29th past, the Queen caused Te Deum to be Sung in our Cathedral, for the Victory obtained over the Enemies Army near Almanara; the Artillery on the Ramparts were Discharged thrice, besides other Demonstrations of publick Joy. We are assured by Deserters, that the Enemy lost in this Action above 6000 Men, including such as are missing: The Number of their Prisoners amounts to 564 Men, among whom are 64 Officers. The Allies had certainly taken more Prisoners, had they not fought with so much eagerness and Fury, particularly the english and Dutch.

Hague, September 2. They write from Vienna, that the Swedish Envoy has notify'd to the Emperor, that the Regency of Sweden consents to the Neutrality of the Empire, as concerted by the High Allies, and has sent by an express to his Master, the Reasons which have induced the said Regency to accept the same. 'Tis confirm'd, that that Prince is on his march from Bender to Poland.

From the Camp at Villars Brulain, September 1. The Garrison of Bethune march'd out yesterday Morning according to the Capitulation, consisting of about 1700 Men, and Major-Gen. Keppel took Possession thereof with 3 Battalions. The Pr. of Savoy and Marlborough have held a Council of War, wherein it was resolved the Army should march towards Aire, and the necessary dispositions are made for our march. The Elector of Bavaria has recalled all the Passports he had given, and the French Generals having done the like, those of the Allies are also to be recalled.

The French continue in their former Camp, where, according to the Report a Trumpet, return'd from thence this Morning, there is an unspeakable Consternation, upon advice of a second Victory obtained by the King of Spain, wherein the French themselves own, that the Infantry of the Duke of Anjou was all cut in Pieces. My Lord Duke received yesterday that welcome News by another way, so that there is no room to doubt the Truth of it.

Paris, August 29. The Duke of Vendosme set out yesterday, after the News of the Defeat of the Spanish Army was brought, but perhaps will stop on the Frontiers, when he shall hear there is no Army for him to Command. The last Letters from Madrid say, that the Relations of the Duke of Medina Celi expressing publickly their Dissatisfaction of the Proceedings against that Lord, the Court had thought fit for preventing the ill Effects of their Murmurings, to publish the Reasons on which is grounded the Sentence pass'd upon him by the Commissaries who were appointed to examine this Affair; and 'tis said that he is convicted, amongst other Crimes, of having betrayed to the Allies all the Secret Negotiations between the Crowns of France and Spain, and thereby prevented the Conclusion of the Peace.

London, August 29. On Sunday last Sir William Godolphin, Elder Brother to the Earl of Godolphin died.
